

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE SOUTHWESTERN ALASKA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Permit No. 1923-51.
Libby, McNeill & Libby.
Kenai.

December 20, 1922.

- - - - -

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, Libby, McNeill & Libby, whose home office is at Seattle, Washington, is hereby authorized to operate its plant for the canning and salting of salmon for commercial purposes at Kenai River, within the Cook Inlet district of the said reservation, during the calendar year 1923, under the following conditions:

1. That the company may operate any ten (10) of the sixteen traps listed in its application for permit dated December 6, 1922, the traps which will be driven to be reported to the Bureau accompanied by a map or chart on which the sites are indicated, if such has not already been filed. No gill net permits will be issued to the company, but fish may be purchased from any individuals obtaining permits to fish for salmon.
2. That the pack of all species of salmon shall not exceed forty thousand (40,000) cases, computed upon the basis of 48 one-pound cans per case.
3. That the company shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.
4. That this permit expires December 31, 1923, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

HERBERT HOOVER

Secretary of Commerce.
